Outline Description	Church of St Alphonse
Property Description	Church dedicated to St Alphonse De Liguori, the saint for whom the benefactor, Alfons Marija Micallef was named. The church was designed by Architect E.L. Galizia with a three-bayed ornate façade with Doric and Ionic columns. The church had a belfry, which was dismantled. The Church is run by the Discalced Carmelites who decided to build a new church nearby, dedicated to St Theresa of Lisieux, after it was damaged by a lightning strike in 1959. It is currently used as a meeting hall and is referred to as "Madonna of Mount Carmel Hall".
